INTRODUCTION

Teaching is a fundamental purpose of the University of Florida and the dissemination of new knowledge in our classrooms, studios, and clinics enables our students and trainees to fully explore their intellectual boundaries. Assessment and evaluation of our courses are designed to enhance instruction and maximize learning to meet the mission of the university. This report contains the results gathered through the new GatorEvals system. Students were invited to share their feedback on the teaching and course material. We invite every faculty member to examine the analysis in the report and utilize the resources provided in the report. Thank you for your continued great work!

Chris Hass, Ph.D.
Associate Provost for Academic and Faculty Affairs

Comments
Her Ability to explain things to our level
Jain is very dedicated and was always available to answer questions. She comes across as warm and caring, and this certainly makes asking questions a lot easier.
Jain provides excellent explanations. I greatly appreciate her feedback on the weekly problem sets and her clear explanations of concepts during recitations.
Promoted a great learning environment and helped with questions and concerns! Grateful for her!
Jain Choi gave really helpful feedback on assignments and for our responses on tests. I wasn't able to attend the TA sessions that were taught but she still provided access to the material that was covered and was very helpful.
Jain demonstrated exceptional patience and clarity in a challenging course. Despite the difficulty of the material, Jain consistently explained concepts in a simple, accessible manner, significantly contributing to my understanding. Her recitation sections and ability to break down complex topics and create a supportive learning environment made the topics easier to understand and fostered a positive learning experience. This combination of patience, clear communication, and approachability greatly enhanced my ability to grasp the topic we were taught.
Jain was very kind and helpful during the recitation sessions and always able to help when we got stuck.
